COLORED KNIGHTS.

Passes Off with Great Eclat. Tarrant Assembly of colored Knights of Labor celebrated its second birthday yesterday on a big scale at the Rosedale pavilion. There were several hundred colored visitors from Dallas, Gainesville, Sherman, Weatherford and various neighboring towns. The parade presented quite a fine appearance. It formed at Daggett's hall, on Main street, in the following order: First, the Marshal and police, followed by the colored band, behind which came the Mayor and City Council; then the Knights on foot, behind them several decorated wagons bearing lady members; behind Mrs. C. D.
